Pre-Group Session Prep

Time: _____ minutes

ACTIONS

This leader guide is a GUIDE. You need not read it verbatim. Consider the intention for each section (written at the top of each section in this color) The times listed are simply suggested times and can be modified by the group leader.

- COMPLETE watching your own individual training module and filling out your own workbook answers.
 - NAVIGATE entire group session at least once. Ensure the technology works.
 - STOP when you reach a slide with a green continue button. These correlate with a section in the leader guide.
 - ANSWER all questions yourself to use as an example.
 - PREPARE using the notes section for your answers, examples or clarifications so you can model/start the conversation.
 - FOLLOW instructions in each section in order given.
 - OPEN document "Alternative ways to communicate about purpose and values." to create what you will do regarding PURPOSE and VALUES during the session.
 - SEND a confirmation email a week prior to the group session if you wish. (see below)
- ◆ TIPS for you to remember as group facilitator:
1. Demonstrate full commitment. Your intention and modeling matter!
 2. Start and end on time no matter who is or is not there. Ask for timeliness from your team.
 3. Maintain pacing as best you can for time you've allotted for each section. You can skip answers and bullet points if needed to stay on track.
 4. Total Time = Time suggested for each section.
 5. Pre-Vid = Time video precedes before starting the facilitation of each section.
 6. Cumulative time = Time elapsed in total for the session, at the end of each section.

EMAIL SAMPLE (Optional)

Hi everyone!

I'm looking forward to seeing you on (Day, Date, Time) for our group LifeWork Systems review session. Please be on time and ready because we have a lot of ground to cover and we will start and end on time. Don't forget to:

- Bring your completed workbook as we will be reading our answers from them.
- Make sure you have completed your post-training survey so I can see your input in advance of this session.
- Let me know if you need anything from me beforehand.

I look forward to seeing you soon!

(Your name)

NOTES

Section 1: We Always Begin With...Purpose

Time: 10 minutes

For the leader: The intention of this section is to help the group learn a. purpose is #1 and b. INVITE them to commit to it. c. values are behaviors that serve to make sure purpose happens. d. focus on one trust value and e. Review helpful tips.

Total Time is 10m (0m pre- vid) Cumulative Time: 10m

- POST or visually have open your organization's blueprint on a browser tab.
- READ Goal: "My first goal is to set the stage for this session by beginning with our purpose and values."
- READ bullet points below (Pull up your organization's blueprint)
 - Our purpose is always THE highest priority; it shifts us from being reactive to proactive
 - You are in charge of YOUR thoughts, feelings, and actions no matter what.
 - Purpose is what we cause for ourselves and for others; purpose connects us to our internal motivation, our WHY.
- READ your organization's PURPOSE on the blueprint. Next, share your unique way to highlight it. (use "Alternative ways to communicate purpose and values") This could be a quote, story, video clip, meme, poem, question, etc.
- READ these rhetorical questions about PURPOSE (tell them no out-loud answer is required):
 1. Will YOU intentionally focus on our purpose and commit to representing it?
 2. Will YOU remain committed even if OTHERS drop their commitment to our purpose?
- READ About CORE VALUES (direct them to the core values in your blueprint) Say: "Our core values are behaviors we engage in to achieve our purpose." These are NOT the 8 values that build trust.
- DELIVER Next, share your unique way to highlight one or more CORE VALUE(S). ("Alternative ways to communicate purpose and values") This could be a quote, story, video clip, meme, poem, question, etc.
- REVIEW this trust value Recognition (#6 on the blueprint under 8 values that build trust). Say, "Recognition is acknowledging with appreciation everyone's gifts, talents and the value and opportunities in our differences too." Ask EVERYONE, "When is it hard to exercise recognition?"
- READ the following 5 helpful tips with your group when you as you end this section:
 1. Speak in first person (use "I"). It will feel and be more responsible. I'll say "first person" if you forget.
 2. "Stay in your yard," share only your experiences, opinions, and feelings.
 3. Take initiative in participating. This supports your leader. Don't wait to be called on.
 4. Keep your answers somewhat brief.
 5. Write down all aha's and questions you think of along the way.
- FINAL WORD "This section is to remind you that intention is the most important thing to do in every moment."

NOTES

Section 2: Benefits of a Blueprint

Time: 15 minutes

For the leader: The intention of this section is so that people see the value of the blueprint for now and later.

Total Time: 15m (2m pre-vid+ 13m) Cumulative Time: 25m

ACTIONS

SHOW up to this slide with a green continue button →

READ section GOAL: “My goal for this section is to help you to realize the importance and high value of a blueprint for each person and organization.”

READ about bullet points (sharing bullet points below is optional but recommended when time allows)

- Just as any blueprint, yours communicates ideas and reasons for what you create.
- A blueprint reminds you what you cause at your best.
- Blueprints help you with your responsibility-based culture because everyone uses it to share their progress plan.
- Blueprints help you become proactive, thoughtful about choices, and internally, intentionally motivated.

ASK group the following 6 questions. Explain to them, “These are not in your workbook.” (12m) Note: You have pretty much time so just pace yourself.

1. Which benefits on the screen are most meaningful and inspire you?
2. What is lost when you are on auto pilot? What priorities in your life get overlooked?
3. Do you think there’s truth to the quote, “Our deepest fear is not that we are inadequate; it’s that we’re powerful beyond measure”? If so, what can you do to embrace being powerful?
4. Do you notice feeling any resistance to this process? If so, how can you overcome it? If not, describe what you feel.
5. What benefits will a blueprint provide you personally?
6. How will your blueprint be of value during your monthly mentoring?

FINAL WORD “The main point of this section is for you to understand the value and need for your own blueprint, using it to align your life and work with your purpose and values, so you live consciously, intentionally, and powerfully.”

NOTES

Section 3: Clarifying Purpose

Time: 20 minutes

For the leader: The intention of this section is to support an understanding of an effective purpose and why it is more important than anything else.

Total Time: 20m (1.5m pre-vid + 18.5m) Cumulative Time: 45m

ACTIONS

- SHOW up to this slide with a green continue button →
- READ section GOAL: My goal for this section is to re-introduce you to the 7 steps in a responsibility-based culture, and your part in it with your blueprint that starts with purpose.
- READ about bullet points (sharing bullet points below is optional but recommended when time allows)
 - Purpose is your north star; the target to point to whether in your own blueprint or the organization's blueprint.
 - The most important step in your blueprint is your purpose; everything else flows from it.
 - Your blueprint is a tool that gets you the support YOU need within your personal progress plan.
 - Every person in every role is synching their intention and actions to co-create your healthy culture.
 - Creating and maintaining your blueprint helps you become self-directed and make long-term, positive change
- BREAKOUT the group into pairs. Explain these instructions. "Please share with your partner your answers to the 4 questions on workbook page 7. You have ____ minutes." (8m suggested)
- ASK each person in the group to share with the group their purpose statements on workbook page 8, question 4, (10m)
Note: Purposes should not be what they do, or how they do something. Purpose should be what is caused in all. If a purpose is not inclusive of all, and if it is dependent on any circumstance, or if it is not memorable or brief, it is not a viable purpose.
- FINAL WORD "The main point in this section is that a responsibility-based culture requires purpose. Guiding yourself and others to purpose, especially when off track and discouraged, is vital to the health of one's self and the team."

How to Clarify Your Purpose

1. Think of 3 memories that stand out in which you felt most alive, most connected, most fulfilled.
2. What's common to all 3 memories?
3. What was I deciding, doing, causing?
4. If you could describe in one word, a few words or a short phrase, what would you want on your tombstone (your lasting legacy and reputation)

Section 4: Clarifying Core Values

Time: 20 minutes

For the leader: The intention of this section is to explain what values are and how they impact purpose.

Total Time: 20m (1m pre-vid + 19m) Cumulative Time: 1 hour 5 minutes

ACTIONS

SHOW up to this slide with a green continue button →

READ section GOAL: “My goal for this section is to help you understand that core values are always servants to achieving your purpose. They are not random or separate from it.”

READ about bullet points (sharing bullet points below is optional but recommended when time allows)

- Many select values as behaviors that sound good but are not always intended to cause one’s purpose.
- Core values are servants TO the purpose.
- In your blueprint, values are unique activities, behaviors, and ways of being that ensure you cause your purpose.
- Values as activities could be getting out in nature, listening to music, exercising, keeping a gratitude journal, or prayer.
- Values as behaviors might be smiling in a mirror or saying a mantra, giving compliments, or eating well.
- Values as ways of being could be being a friend; treating everyone as you would a best friend or optimistic, or kind.

ASK the following questions of EVERYONE in this group. Explain to them, “These are not in your workbook.” (10m)

1. What does it mean that values are always servants to your purpose?
2. What is one value you have identified? Is it an activity, a behavior, or a state of being? How does this value serve you in causing your purpose?
3. How does or will having, considering, adding, refining, and referencing core values help you?
4. Share 1-2 examples that demonstrate when you have lived your purpose, what it caused, and how it felt?

ASK the group turn to workbook page 9 on How Do I Clarify My Values? Have each one share at least 1 core value from the list of what they do that helps them live their purpose and one value from the list they created to overcome a barrier. (8m)
Note: if group is large, split them into partners.

FINAL WORD “The main point of this section is to recognize that core values are in relationship to your purpose and also when you proceed forward in creating visions which are expressions of your purpose.”

NOTES

Section 5: Clarifying Visions

Time: 20 minutes

For the leader: The intention of this section is to help people adopt a child-mind perspective so they open up the possibilities they would not otherwise open to.

Total Time: 20m (36 seconds pre-vid + 19m) Cumulative Time: 1 hour, 25m

ACTIONS

SHOW up to this slide with a green continue button →

READ section GOAL: My goal for this section is to help you understand the role of vision in relation to purpose and values and before you jump into goals, procedures and roles after them.

READ about bullet points (sharing bullet points below is optional but recommended when time allows)

- Vision in our model is multiple visions. You may have visions for the organization, your work and personal life
- Most people resist defining visions because they think THEY alone must fulfill them or know how to do so
- When you write a vision and share it, hold it lightly. You have taken a big step just defining and describing it
- Let defining each vision be its own transaction and align with it, feel the joy of it before any next steps
- When you write visions that align with your purpose and values, it is a responsible and effective thing to do

ASK the following questions of this group. Explain to them, “These are not in your workbook.” (5m)

1. Give examples of how aligning your visions with your purpose and values supports them in manifesting?
2. What is accomplished by leaving out how and having a child’s mind?
3. What is accomplished by writing down what you would be feeling as if your vision has manifested?

BREAKOUT the group into pairs and discuss the vision and all details (to the bottom of the page) that each person has written under #3 on workbook page 10. (10m) These can also be shared by EVERYONE as a group if time allows.

DISCUSS briefly how you feel and what you learned about vision from your partner discussion. (3m)

FINAL WORD “Once you have created and captured your purpose, values and at one vision, you have done tremendous work and have a very powerful foundation to your progress plan for sharing with your mentor periodically. Your blueprint is a communication, planning, and self-accountability tool.”

Blueprint Step 3: Clarify Visions

In a blueprint, a vision has 4 parts. They are:

1. The vision statement (provocative proposition)
2. Why vision statement aligns with your purpose
3. Results - these do not explain how or who, just what outcomes desired at their best
4. Feelings (emotions not ideas)

NOTES

Section 6: Clarifying Goals, Procedures & Roles Time: 15 minutes

For the leader: The intention of this section is to demonstrate how goals, procedures and roles are meaningful and helpful when aligned with purpose, values and visions. They also help people function with thoroughness and excellence.

Total Time: 15m (2m pre-vid + 13m) Cumulative Time: 1 hour, 40m

ACTIONS

SHOW up to this slide with a green continue button →

READ section GOAL: “My goal for this section is to emphasize to you that goals, procedures, and roles do not come first. They are only done in alignment with the overall purpose, values, and visions.”

READ about bullet points (sharing bullet points below is optional but recommended when time allows)

- Most people set goals, without purpose, values, vision, and then often assign ALL goals and procedures to themselves.
- Sharing your blueprint is what helps a person hold him or herself accountable.
- Writing down everything from purpose to roles inspires internal motivation.
- Selecting goals, procedures and roles exercises your sense of choice so you are most likely to succeed.

ASK the following questions of this group. Explain to them, “These are not in your workbook.” (5m)

1. How does aligning your goals with your purpose, values, and visions help you?
2. How is identifying your procedures important to excellence and managing your time?
3. What’s one area you could delegate roles to another person or persons in the vision you have developed?

BREAKOUT the group into pairs (or discuss as a group) the example each has written under #3 on workbook page 11: (7m)

FINAL WORD “There is power and magic in aligning every step within a blueprint back to purpose and values. The ends only justify the means when the means are aligned with purpose as the priority focus.”

Clarifying Goals, Procedures, Roles

1. Review your purpose and values.
2. Consider one vision statement you expanded.
3. Define one SMART goal. Make it quantifiable and time-bound. Describe the overall strategy.
4. Identify and describe two or more procedures that are also quantifiable, measurable and time-bound.
5. Identify and describe who will play various roles in fulfilling the procedures. (look outside of yourself whenever possible)

Section 7: Jim Carrey: Purpose. Values. Vision.

Time: 10 minutes

For the leader: The intention of this section to demonstrate the strong emotional power when people tap into the best of who they are and connect this to the sense of meaningfulness in purpose, values, and visions.

Total Time: 10m (3.5m pre-vid + 6.5m) Cumulative Time: 1 hour, 50m

ACTIONS

SHOW up to this slide with a green continue button →

READ section GOAL: “My goal for this section is to show you a real-life version of purpose, values, and vision.”

READ about bullet points (sharing bullet points below is optional but recommended when time allows)

- Jim Carrey not only demonstrated purpose, values, and vision; he gave us things to reflect on about them.
- His purpose to help people “relax and show the best version of themselves” is not tied to circumstances.

ASK the group to turn to workbook page 16 and have EVERYONE share at least 1 of the 3-4 answers they wrote. (6m)

FINAL WORD “There is power and magic in aligning every step within a blueprint back to purpose and values. The ends only justify the means when the means are aligned with high purpose as the priority focus.”

NOTES

Section 8: It Just Got Real

Time: 10 minutes

For the leader: The intention of this section is to magnify awareness and management of behavior change.

Total Time: 10m (0m pre-vid) Cumulative Time: 2 hours

ACTIONS

SHOW up to this slide →

READ section GOAL: “My goal is to help you to leave this session grounding the information you’ve been learning. By reflecting on it, clarifying it, practicing it, and sharing it multiple times, you’re likely to remember, own, and apply what you’ve learned.”

READ about bullet points (sharing bullet points below is optional but recommended when time allows)

- People don’t sustain real or lasting change without discussing what is newly learned
- Committing to sharing at least some of your ah-ha’s, barriers and next steps is crucial to long-term retentions.

ASK the following questions. Have EVERYONE share briefly*:

1. One new idea or ah-ha gained from this session that was not fully known or understood before it started.
2. One next step to apply something learned. (This need not be related to their aha’s)

FINAL WORD (Thank them sincerely in your own words!)

The screenshot shows a digital form titled "It Just Got Real!" with a "Continue" button at the bottom right. The form is divided into two numbered sections, 1 and 2. Each section has a "Title" field, a "Challenge or barrier" field, and a "Next step or action" field. The form is set against a light green background with a grid pattern.

NOTES

If you run out of time by this section, assign the 2 questions to them to do sometime throughout the day and email their answers to you. This helps them retain what they learn.*
